SUPREME COURT.

AT CHAMBERS.

THURSDAY, August 9.

BEFORE HIS HONOR JUSTICE BICKERTON.
Wung Chun vs. H. J. Nolte: Trespass and claim for $1000 damages. Jury waived. The Court decides as follows: "Plaintiff claims $1000 damages for that defendant expelled and ejected him from certain leased lands, and converted to his use the crops of plaintiff growing on said lands. The parties waived a jury and the court heard by me on the 8th August, 1889. The evidence clearly proves that the lessee has abandoned the leased premises some three months before the defendant lessor entered and took possession of the same. I therefore find for the defendant." Judgment for defendant with $12 costs. W. R. Castle attorney for plaintiff. C. Brown attorney for defendant.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, Aug. 9.

Jack Kuamoo, charged with treason on 30th July and during three months previously. Remanded by prosecution until August 16.
